The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 22, to Saturday June 26, 1773.

Kew, June 26.

THE King having set out from the Commissioner's House at Portsmouth at Three Quarters after Six this Morning, arrived here about Two o'Clock this Afternoon, in perfect Health.

The Account of what passed during His Majesty's Residence at Portsmouth must be deferred 'till Tuesday next, the Particulars not having been received in Time for this Night's Gazette.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 9th Day of June, 1773,

PRESENT,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Orders in Council of the 24th of May 1771, and the 10th of September 1772, for taking off the Quarantine from all Ships and Vessels then arrived, or that might thereafter arrive from any of the Ports and Places mentioned in the said Orders, to direct, That all such Ships and Vessels should be permitted to discharge their respective Ladings without unpacking, opening, and airing, and without performing any Quarantine, provided they had no Cotton Wool on Board, that they brought with them clean Bills of Health, and that the Master, or other Person having Charge of such Ship or Vessel, did first make Oath before the Custom-house Officer, or Chief Magistrate, on their Arrival at the Place where they were bound to, that the Crews were free from all Infection. — And whereas it has been represented to His Majesty at this Board, that several Ships and Vessels are now arrived, and others expected daily to arrive, from several of the said Ports and Places, without Bills of Health, and will thereby become subject to the Rules of Quarantine, to the great Loss and Detriment of the Owners: — His Majesty taking the same into Consideration, and being desirous to remove all Restraints upon Trade, so far as may be consistent with the Safety of His Subjects, is pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, That all Ships and Vessels already arrived, or that may hereafter arrive, from Hamburgh, Bremen, or the Ports of Flanders, from Dantzick, or any other Port or Place in Royal and Ducal Prussia, Pomerania, Samogitia, Courland, and Livonia, or from Archangel, Petersburgh, Narva, Riga, or any other Port or Place in the Dominions of Russia, be permitted to discharge their respective Ladings without unpacking, opening, and airing, and without performing any Quarantine, notwithstanding they shall omit to bring a clean Bill of Health, provided they have no Cotton-Wool on Board, and that the Master, or other Person taking Charge of such Ship or Vessel, do first make Oath before the Custom-house Officer, or Chief Magistrate, on their Arrival at the Place where they are bound to, that the Crews are free from all Infection.—And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great-Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the Time being, of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

G. Chetwynd.
